

CITY OF WESLACO, TEXAS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON REALIGNING CITY COMMISSIONER DISTRICTS

According to the 2010 Census data, the City's commissioner districts are not of sufficiently equal population and must be redrawn in order to comply with the "one-person, one-vote" principle established by the U.S. Constitution.

The Weslaco City Commission is considering new boundaries for its commissioner districts and wants to hear from you. Tell us what you think about the preliminary commissioner districts plans at the public hearing described below:

PUBLIC HEARING ON REDISTRICTING PROPOSALS

Time: 5:30 p.m.
Date: Tuesday, November 1, 2011 and Tuesday, November 15, 2011
Address: Weslaco City Hall – Legislative Chamber
255 South Kansas Avenue
Weslaco, Texas

The preliminary plans for the commissioner districts will be available at the hearing and are available for public inspection during normal business hours at Weslaco City Hall in the Offices of the City Secretary, Monday through Friday from now until the date of the public hearing. Preliminary plans and other information concerning making comments about the City's redistricting process are available on the City's website at www.weslacotx.gov. You may also call the Office of the City Secretary if you have any questions, 956.968.3181.
