EDCW Meeting Postponed

Weslaco, TX – Today's Economic Development Corp. of Weslaco (EDCW) Special Meeting will be postponed due to a minor deficiency in publishing the public notice.

"Our interim Executive Director assured us there would not be a problem with the online posting of a Special Meeting while she was on vacation this week," said Leonardo Olivares, City Manager. "Regrettably, the online meeting notice was posted less than the required 72 hours."

Alicia Aguilar, Interim Executive Director, indicated that she had been available earlier in the day to publish the notice online, but did not receive it until a few minutes before the deadline. By that time, she had a prior commitment and could not publish the notice.

"Weslaco's EDC needs to be more transparent and accountable to the public. A management audit will identify strengths and weaknesses, and allow the Board to retool the EDC. What will emerge is a smarter, stronger EDC to compete mano-a-mano with larger cities."
